According to MISA's Constitution, a member of the union may resign by giving 14 days written notice of such intent.

PLEASE NOTE

A member who terminates their membership, will: -

- be liable for payment of all subscriptions, and any other monies due to the union, up to the date on which membership ceases.
- no longer be entitled to any benefits of membership (monetary and/or service related).

I, the undersigned, hereby accept the above and wish to terminate my MISA membership, hereby giving 14 days' notice, with effect from the date received by the Union.
